As the price of Bitcoin soared Friday during early afternoon trading hours in the U.S., the rally stalled as traders appeared content to take profits just below the previous all-time high mark of $124,128.

The six candidates vying for seats on the California Public Employees' Retirement System Board of Administration expressed divided views when asked whether Bitcoin should be included in the $506 billion fund's portfolio.

In fact, even with such a sharp correction, the overall trend could still be considered long-term bullish, with prices still trading above the 50-day EMA.
