SearchGPT is the latest development in what appears to be a new era in web search, which The Verge's Nilay Patel has termed "Google Zero." This approach prioritizes practicality over variety: instead of presenting a list with different sources and approaches to a specific query, which encourages users to do their own research, AI-powered search engines opt for a more direct tactic, providing concise, summarized information responding exactly to what users are looking for.

The proposed legislation, known as the STREAMLINE Act, would raise the Bank Secrecy Act's reporting thresholds for the first time since its creation more than 50 years ago.
