Still, compared to past cycles, BTC's price hasn't soared as much post its quadrennial halving: as the market cap of the biggest coin grows, it takes far more cash to move its price, and the volatility of the cryptocurrency is down since the 2024 approval of U.S. Bitcoin ETFs.

Investors piled back into Bitcoin ETFs and their Ethereum counterparts Tuesday, reversing days of outflows, although the fresh investments failed to give the two largest cryptocurrencies by market value a long-lasting bump.

Decentralized applications (DApps) are changing the way we interact with the Internet. Unlike traditional applications, DApps run on blockchain networks, do not rely on centralized servers, and feature decentralization, openness, and immutability. Currently, DApps are mainly concentrated in games, finance, social media, and other fields, providing users with brand new experiences. Although the development of DApps still faces challenges such as user experience, performance, and scalability, with the continuous advancement of technology, we believe that DApps will become an important part of the future Internet.

The rise of NFTs (Non-Fungible Tokens) has brought revolutionary changes to digital content creation and trading. Based on blockchain technology, NFTs ensure the uniqueness and immutability of digital assets, solving the problem of digital content being easily copied. NFTs have a very wide range of application scenarios, including digital art, game items, virtual real estate, music works, etc. The rapid development of the NFT market has attracted the participation of many artists, collectors, and investors, and has also provided creators with new monetization channels. Although there are risks of speculation and bubbles in the NFT market, in the long run, NFTs will inject new vitality into the development of the digital economy.

The "Alpha Arena," a competition that pits prominent large language models against each other in the live cryptocurrency market, saw OpenAI's GPT-5 and Google's Gemini 2.5 Pro with staggering losses of more than 28% during the same period.
