"Traditional sportsbooks focus on entertainment-driven, event-specific wagering with defined odds and consumer protections; meanwhile, prediction markets operate as decentralized forecasting tools where liquidity and information efficiency determine prices," he added. "If effectively regulated, both models could ultimately complement each other."

The announcement followed the close of a $27 million private investment in public equity (PIPE) backed by institutional DeFi and TradFi investors.

"At this point, it's too early to tell whether the demand for HPC will meet lofty expectations," he wrote. "We remain focused on infrastructure that keeps bitcoin mining competitive, helping clients secure power-ready sites, interconnection, and long-duration energy, with the flexibility to repurpose assets for HPC if and when demand matures."

"This helps us understand friction points and opportunities, and keeps us close to the edge of what's possible," the announcement reads.
