The meme coin group has been gloating online about the attention their marketing gimmicks have been receiving, encouraging each other to share and repost any mention of their stunts in the hopes of getting more people to buy their token.

Lee told CNBC after the trading day on Friday that investors were still “licking their wounds” from the record leverage flush, but there was also a bit of “gold envy” as the commodity has been a “huge performer this year.”

This suggests that a price rebound may lack the momentum derived from consistent buying pressure, potentially leading to a deeper pullback.
