Strategy said earlier this year that it was adjusting its policy on common share issuance to convey discipline. The policy was modified to give the company greater flexibility, but onlookers suggested that it could make Strategy's move less predictable moving forward.

While the funding round marks a significant early win for Tempo—a layer-1 blockchain that will support payment processor Stripe's aggressive push into crypto—it was not the biggest news about the project that rocked Crypto Twitter on Friday.

"In the long term, partnerships between licensed prediction platforms and established sportsbooks are more likely than head-to-head competition, especially as the industry converges around transparency, liquidity efficiency, and on-chain data integrity," Ivan Muller, CMO at crypto-based gaming and sports betting platform, Dexsport.io, told Decrypt.

Still, some miners have already announced initiatives to convert facilities with Hut 8 last month revealing plans to develop 1.53 gigawatts of new capacity across four U.S. sites.

DAT bubble bursting?

As the first successful application of blockchain technology, cryptocurrencies have gone through more than ten years of development. From the initial Bitcoin to the current wide variety of tokens, the cryptocurrency market has experienced multiple booms and busts. Nevertheless, the ideas of decentralization and disintermediation represented by cryptocurrencies are profoundly influencing the traditional financial system. More and more institutional investors are beginning to pay attention to and participate in the cryptocurrency market, and governments of various countries are also actively exploring regulatory frameworks for cryptocurrencies to promote their healthy development.
