While Bitcoin was already struggling after the collapse of the ICO bubble, its sharp drop on Feb. 6 closely coincided with Kobayashi's major sell-off. Kobayashi denied that his Mt. Gox liquidations deepened the decline, but his actions drew criticism from market observers.

"I believe some of the sell-off is due to a cohort of market participants stuck to the four-year cycle," Matthew Nay, a research analyst at Messari, told Decrypt. "If you look at the timing, it's almost exactly four years since we topped last cycle, and when you throw in trade war uncertainty, it allows them to defend their positions more aggressively."

In 2017 and 2018, Kobayashi earned the nickname “Tokyo Whale” for selling Mt. Gox Bitcoin to fund fiat repayments. In mid-2024, wallet activity surged again as roughly 100,000 BTC was moved between Mt. Gox addresses for distribution, though not all represented actual sales.

The FT estimated that World Liberty Financial generated more than $550 million in sales of its WLFI token, which included investments from Chinese crypto billionaire Justin Sun and the United Arab Emirates-based crypto fund Aqua 1 Foundation.

Polymarket made big moves this month

"In line with WNBA Arena Security Standards, any fan who intentionally throws an object onto the court will be immediately ejected and face a minimum one-year ban in addition to being subject to arrest and prosecution by local authorities," it said in a statement.
