"The $9 million transfer that Arkham and others have cited was simply a transfer to another wallet under his control. He did not send those funds to an exchange (yet)," he said. But he cautioned that it's possible that World Liberty has access to non-public information that explains the blacklisting.

Chen Zhi is the founder and chairman of Prince Holding Group, a multinational business conglomerate based in Cambodia. The Department of Justice has alleged that Prince Holding is at the center of a global crypto scam operation involving forced labor and billions of dollars in victims' losses.

"We have hashing technologies, where we have the ability technologically to detect CSAM proactively," the spokesperson said. "That's something that's sort of an industry-wide standard, and we're able to block it from appearing in search."

Ether's price action over the past 14 days has led to the formation of a bear flag pattern on the 12-hour chart, as shown in the figure below. The price dropped below the lower boundary of the flag at $4,000 on Tuesday, signaling the start of a significant breakdown.

If US equities sustain their recovery heading into earnings season, it could create favorable conditions for Bitcoin's own upside revival. A renewed rally in tech and growth stocks, bolstered by easier monetary policy, might help extend "Uptober" optimism into a stronger finish for the month.

The comments follow a white paper release from the company, revealing a Bitcoin trustless vault system that leverages Bitcoin smart contract verification BitVM3 to lock BTC in per-user vaults. Here, withdrawals are gated by proofs of external smart contract state verified on Bitcoin.
