The US government has been shut down since Oct. 1, marking the third-longest closure in US history. It is unlikely there will be a vote on the digital assets market structure bill until it reopens.

That infrastructure is now being extended with their acquisition of 21Shares as a “natural next step” to strengthen market efficiency, Yarlagadda claimed, adding that the move is a “deliberate, long-term investment in building durable enterprise value across market cycles.”

The sell-off stemmed from renewed trade tensions between the US and China, after reports of potential 100% tariffs on Chinese imports, which rattled risk sentiment. However, as markets stabilized early this week, US stocks began recovering, though Bitcoin’s rebound has lagged.
