“These protections have already proven to be successful in addressing other types of non-consensual imagery, and we've now built the same capabilities for fake explicit images as well,” Google said. “These efforts are designed to give people added peace of mind, especially if they're concerned about similar content about them popping up in the future.”

In the film, this is an argument based on moral intuition alone, without a principled basis and defended only by tautology. None of the ideas' advocates make the normative case for why code should be law, but there must be an instrumental basis for this philosophy beyond moralism.

The continued outflows come amid growing political unrest in the US. On Sunday, as the US government shutdown entered its 18th day, nationwide “No Kings” demonstrations accused the Trump administration of sliding toward authoritarianism.
