A representative for the company did not respond to Decrypt's request for comment on Dorsey's comment, which Ardoino did not respond publicly to.

Crypto trades 24/7, with sharp moves as likely on a Sunday night as on a Tuesday morning. In such a continuous market, trying to "pick your moment" is mostly guesswork, which is why many investors prefer a rule that removes the need for perfect timing.

Catalyst windows can also distort price action. Listings and token unlocks may temporarily overwhelm shallow market depth, especially in illiquid altcoins. This can produce sharp "breaks" that often reverse once order flow normalizes. Research on market microstructure around launches and unlocks shows how depth, fragmentation and positioning can combine to create these head fakes.
