Approved by the SEC last year, the ETFs allow traditional investors and even institutions to buy exposure to the cryptocurrencies via funds that trade on stock exchanges.

"We have been reviewing the entire portfolio from first principals to evaluate AI suitability and have identified Georgia as a strategic region for both potential conversion as well as expansion," wrote Scott Garrison, chief development officer and executive vice president at ClearSpark, adding:

"I don't expect a broad altcoin rally like in previous cycles," he said. "This time, growth will be likely driven by select, high-quality projects rather than the entire market moving at once."
