Lee stated that many DATs are trading below their net asset value (NAV), or the worth of their underlying crypto holdings. "If that's not already a bubble burst... How would that bubble burst?" he told Fortune on Thursday.

The open banking framework, first proposed in 2022 under former U.S. President Joe Biden and finalized on October 22, 2024, allows consumers to securely share financial data with third-party apps through APIs (application programming interfaces).

"The bill ensures that the companies driving up New Yorkers' electricity rates pay their fair share, while providing direct relief to families struggling with rising utility costs," Senator Krueger said in a statement when S8518 was introduced.

Crypto-native founders can't compete with Stripe or Coinbase regarding distribution and regulatory terms. The big guys can acquire licenses overnight and onboard millions of merchants with an API call.

"Further steps" ahead

The competition began with $200 in starting capital for each bot, which was later increased to $10,000 per model, with trades executed on the decentralized exchange Hyperliquid.
