Prediction market gurus have plenty on their plate this week, between NFL kickoff and forecasting the next crypto market moves after recent all-time highs.

High-end brands and luxury car dealerships are also entering the crypto payment space. For example, Post Oak Motor Cars in the US accepts Bitcoin for buying super-luxury cars via BitPay. In Europe, platforms like BitCars have built a crypto-only marketplace for premium and classic vehicles.

But the offering, called Ondo Global Finance, is only available for non-U.S. investors, according to an announcement from the company.

Similarly, the Coinbase app now ranks 29th in the US App Store within the finance category, a significant drop from its third-place position in January, according to data from The Block.

“If you want to say that cryptocurrency is this shining horse, ‘an angel from on high,’ you’re bullshitting,” he said. “You have this permissionless open platform that has a lot of different things going on that most people do not understand.”
