In fact, even with such a sharp correction, the overall trend could still be considered long-term bullish, with prices still trading above the 50-day EMA.

The US dollar's hegemony is over, as evidenced by China's recent announcement of export controls on rare earth minerals, a critical component in electronics manufacturing and military defense applications, according to analyst Luke Gromen.

They warned that if the shutdown continues, its impact could extend from liquidity to structural trust in the US system. "The market's next move may depend on whether the nation's political institutions can restore consensus amid deep division," they said.
