According to a post from journalist Eleanor Terrett on X, “the senators as a group said they were committed to getting a bill done.”

The announcement followed the close of a $27 million private investment in public equity (PIPE) backed by institutional DeFi and TradFi investors.

Some analysts speculated that up to 99% of creditors might sell once they received their share. But when repayments actually began, there was “no significant spike” in trading volume, according to CryptoQuant founder Ki Young Ju.

The Bank Policy Institute and Kentucky Bankers Association filed a lawsuit the same day the rule was finalized, saying it mandates data sharing without proper oversight of third parties, increases fraud risk by allowing unsafe practices like screen scraping, and forces banks to provide free access to systems they've spent billions securing.

World Liberty Financial is arguably the most prominent Trump-backed crypto venture, with Donald Trump and his three sons all listed as co-founders. So far, the project has only rolled out its USD1 stablecoin and sold its WLFI governance token; however, plans are in place to expand further into the world of decentralized finance and offer lending services.
