Grace Springer, who is from New Jersey, filmed the moment the band's frontman Chris Martin panned his 'kiss cam' around Gillette Stadium in Massachusetts - capturing Andy Byron, the now-former CEO of software firm Astronomer, getting cosy with colleague Kristin Cabot, the company's Chief People Officer. The pair looked horrified to be seen by thousands on the big screen, as Martin said: 'Oh, look at these two - either they're having an affair or they're just very shy.' Public records suggest that Byron and Cabot are both married - but living at different addresses to each of their spouses registered abodes - and the clip sparked a frenzy of memes on social media. Springer happened to be filming the moment they hid from a crowd of 50,000 people and later uploaded the footage on TikTok, where it has racked up an astonishing 120million views and counting.
